

Kate Schlesinger

Solutions Advisor

Center for Professional and Executive Development,
Wisconsin School of Business

Kate Schlesinger currently serves as a Solutions Advisor for the Wisconsin School of Business, Center for Professional and Executive Development (CPED) in Madison, Wisconsin. Prior to this role, Kate was the Vice President of Corporate Partnerships for the CPED and has strategically managed hundreds of projects for corporate education partnerships with leaders from Fortune 500 organizations, helping them reimagine employee learning and development.

Kate brings over 20 years of experience in executive leadership and education and share her unique perspective on building more inclusive work environments. Based upon researched used in her graduate work, she uses a powerful tool that will help organizations better understand thinking and decision-making processes.

Kate has served in executive roles at Sylvan Learning, Microsoft IT Academy and DeVry University. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Education and Spanish from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh and three Masters degrees in Educational Administration, Higher Education Leadership, and Human Resources Management.